BETWEEN:

SAMINU YAHAYA-----PLAINTIFF

AND

UMAR USMAN-----DEFENDANT

COUNSEL: Mustapha Akilu Esq. for the Plaintiff. And the plaintiff is not in court neither the defendant. The matter is for hearing. However we are glad to inform the court that the defendant upon being served with the plaintiff letter of demand issued by this court, the defendant has paid the plaintiff his money through us as plaintiff solicitors. We therefore urge the court to enter judgment of the sum of ₦392,000 (Three Hundred and Ninety Two Thousand Naira) we acknowledged to collecting for the plaintiff.

JUDGEMENT

By Order 17 Rule (1) and (2) of the this court rules, court may enter judgment in favor of the Plaintiff and against the Defendant of the claim agreed or part of the claim agreed to be hold.

Thus, plaintiff in this case as file this action against the defendant claiming the liquidated sum of ₦392,000 (Three Hundred and Ninety

Two Thousand Naira) and upon being served with letter of demand, the defendant agreed and even paid the money in question as expressed by the plaintiff counsel Mustapha Akilu Esq. of M.M. Yabo & Co.

Defendant having paid the money directly through the plaintiff counsel and they having acknowledged receipt of same, this court relying on Order 17 Rule 1 and 2 of this court rules therefore left with no option but to enter judgment in favour of the plaintiff against the defendant.

Accordingly, consent judgment of the sum of ₦392,000 (Three Hundred and Ninety Two Thousand Naira) is hereby entered against the defendant and in favour of the plaintiff.

Judgment for the plaintiff.
